LETRS FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATORS

June 7 and 8, 2012

8:00 – 3:30 PM

Mayerson Academy

2650 Highland Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45219

This two-day workshop provides scientifically-based professional development in early literacy for educators working with preschool and kindergarten children as well as early elementary children who struggle with the literacy process. Participants learn how to plan developmentally appropriate, engaging activities which enrich child's vocabulary, listening, and oral language skills and lay a strong foundation for learning to read. The workshop is followed by up to four hours of in-class coaching to assist educators in implementing these strategies.

Mayerson Academy is certified by the Ohio Department of Education to provide early childhood professional development credit for this course.

Graduate credit is available through the College of Mt. St. Joseph.
